

CONFEDERATE REUNION DAY

The Veterans of Amherst Organize a Confederate Camp.

DINNER ON COURT GREEN

Music by Band and Church Choir Sings—Addresses by Gen. Munford and Cyclone Jim.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

AMHERST, VA., August 10.—Fully one thousand persons attended the Confederate Day given here to-day under the auspices of the Dr. John Thompson Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. The old Confederates of the county were out in full force, and brought with them their wives, children and grandchildren. They also brought with them large baskets of dinner, and after the exercises were over the dinner was spread in the court green for the crowd.

The exercises were held out on the court green, where a large platform had been erected for the speakers. Confederate flags and bright colors decorated the platform, courthouse and yard. A band from Lynchburg furnished music for the crowd, and the choir of several churches in the village rendered some songs. Quite a number of people came over from Lynchburg, among them several members of the Lynchburg Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy.

TIE SPOAKERS.
Eloquent speeches were made by Dr. J. B. Aivert, General T. T. Munford and Judge J. W. Marshall, better known as "Cyclone Jim" Marshall.

At the conclusion of the exercises a camp of Confederate veterans was organized in the midst of great enthusiasm. Rev. Dr. J. B. Aivert opened the exercises with prayer.

Dr. Aivert is an enthusiastic ex-Confederate, and was chaplain during the war of the Seventh Virginia Cavalry. This company formed the nucleus of Turner Ashby's brigade, and was fighting under him when he was shot. Dr. Aivert made a stirring speech, urging the veterans to organize a camp, and it was his stirring appeal for which was the cause of the organization of the Colonel John T. Ellis Camp of veterans later in the day.

Mr. W. K. Allen presided over the exercises and introduced the speakers. Mr. C. T. Scott, on behalf of the Daughters of the Confederacy, and the certificates entitling the veterans to crosses of honor, to be presented to them by the Daughters of the Confederacy, were presented to them by Mr. A. B. Strode.

THEIR OLD COMMAND.
A considerable part of General Munford's first command, the Second Virginia Cavalry, went from this county and followed him through the war, notably the company organized here by Captain Thomas Whitehead. The old soldiers were glad to see once more their old commander and grasp his hand. They listened eagerly to his speech and applauded heartily when he had finished. General Munford emphasized the fact that the South had fought only for a defense of its rights, and even its invasion of the North on the two occasions in which this was done, was merely a part of the scheme of defensive warfare.

Cyclone Jim Marshall's speech drew loud cheers and peals of laughter from the crowd.

It was interspersed with many of the Judge's best jokes, which were thoroughly enjoyed.

Judge Marshall promised the people of Amherst to visit them again during the fall campaign, and he says that he is going to make it warm for the Republicans in the Ninth District and all over the State this year.

At the conclusion of the exercises the veterans got together and organized the John T. Ellis Camp of Confederate Veterans. Sixty-five members were enrolled, and the following officers were elected: Commander, E. B. McGinnis; First Lieutenant, Commander, B. B. Campbell; Second Lieutenant, Commander, Solon Stephens; Third Lieutenant, Commander, V. McGinnis; Chaplain, Captain Edgar Whitehead.

The veterans passed resolutions thanking the Dr. John Thompson Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy for the magnificent way in which they had entertained them.

Urquhart-Gillette Camp.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SUFFOLK, VA., Aug. 10.—Confederate veterans from Southampton and nearby counties had a reunion to-day at Delaware Park under the auspices of the Urquhart-Gillette Camp. The camp was organized by the Urquhart-Gillette Camp to succeed Cecil C. Vaughan, secretary.

GREAT WATERMELONS.
Soil of the Chickahominy Grows Them at Seventy Pounds.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PROVIDENCE FORGE, VA., August 10.—The watermelon groves and shipping there have been exceedingly busy for the past week getting their crops into market.

Mr. Berry Haxall, who is one of the most extensive growers, was offered a thousand dollars for his crop in the field, but he declined, preferring to wait until the crop was shipped. His melons are unusually fine, both in quality and size, many of them weighing close to twenty pounds. The soil along the south side of the Chickahominy River is particularly adapted to such crops, and no doubt the owners will in the near future dispose of them at a high price.

A Vile Disease
Contagious Blood Poison has wrecked more lives and caused more misery and suffering than all other diseases combined. Some are inclined to treat it lightly, but these soon learn that they have to deal with a powerful poison that is slowly but surely breaking down the constitution. Contagious Blood Poison not only mutes out punishment to the one who contracts it, but years may become innocent victims of this vile disease through inheritance. If your blood is tainted you may live to see your children battling with the same disease. A few bottles cured me permanently. I also consider S. S. S. the best tonic ever made. Why taking it my weight increased and my health improved in every way. S. A. WRIGHT, 1800 Ferryville Ave., Allegheny City, Pa.

mercury and potash treatment all signs of infection may disappear, but leave off these minerals and you soon find out the poison is still alive and you are just as bad off as ever. S. S. S. is the only antidote for Contagious Blood Poison. It destroys the virus completely without injuring the system. It is a vegetable remedy, and we offer $1.00 for proof that it contains a single mineral ingredient. S. S. S. not only works the poison out of the blood thoroughly, but restores vigor and strength to all parts of the system.

Great trees that have stood for centuries and have furnished pleasant shade for the tired traveler in summer and protected him from the chilling blast of winter now lie decaying by the way, and in their stead a line of telephone poles.

KILLED AND BURIED ALONG SIDE TRACK

Mangled Remains of Unidentified White Man Found on Rails.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

MIDLESEX, VA., August 10.—A frightfully mangled body of an unknown white man was found lying across the tracks of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad near here early this morning. Other than a gold ring set with two rubies, a bunch of keys and one dollar in small change, nothing was found on his person. It was supposed to lead to his identification. He was clad in a new suit of clothes of dark color, new underwear, black shirt with small white stripes and black hat, apparently about twenty-five years old, clean shaven and light hair.

It is supposed he fell from a passing train some time during the night. The train was found over the remains early this afternoon, the coroner's jury deciding that he met his death by falling under the train on which he was beating his way. The railway company was exonerated from all blame.

After the inquest the remains were taken in charge by the county authorities and buried alongside the track at the spot where found.

TAKEN AFTER FIVE YEARS

County Saloon-Keepers Advised to Keep Shotguns for the City Police.

FINE AND BOND FOR OFFICER

Crew of British Steamship Libel the Vessel to Recover Wages Alleged to Be Due Them.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., August 10.—W. F. Ehoff, twenty-seven years old, a painter, was arrested here to-day, charged with a felony committed over five years ago. The young man was living with his parents when the police suspected him of breaking into a house which had just been robbed. He fled from the city and went to Philadelphia, where he married and lived until recently. Some weeks ago Ehoff put in his appearance at his father's home, bringing with him his two children and having nothing to say about his wife.

Immediately after his arrival the young man began to drink heavily, and, though he was a good worker, he kept well filled up with whiskey most of the time. To-day he announced that he was going to leave the city. His father applied to the police, asking that the man be compelled to support his children.

At the police station Sergeant Reynolds remembered that there was a warrant on file charging Ehoff with housebreaking. The arrest followed, and the prisoner will be given a hearing in the Police Court to-morrow.

SHIP LIBELLED.

Nineteen members of the crew of the British steamship Manancia, which is at the shipyard for repairs, have retained Attorneys J. D. C. Brown and Hunter Boyd, to bring action to recover wages alleged to be due them. The ship was libelled before the United States commissioner in Norfolk this afternoon. The claims of the men average about $30. The vessel went around off Tampico, Mexico, several weeks ago, and came here to have her hull overhauled.

In Bloodfield last night City Policeman Z. T. Jones was fined $5 and put under a bond of $100 for six months for trespassing upon the premises of Max Feinstein, a county saloon keeper. The officer claimed he entered the side door of the saloon on Sunday several weeks ago to secure evidence to be used against the barkeeper before the grand jury.

Charles Robinson, the Bloodfield negro magistrate, decided that the city police had no right to interfere with county saloons, even though the places were located within a mile of the city limits. The case was appealed to the Circuit Court.

SHOTGUNS FOR POLICE.

Attorney F. S. Collier, of Hampton, representing Feinstein, said in his argument that he advised every county saloon to keep a shotgun loaded with buckshot for the purpose of killing any Newport News policeman who interfered with his business.

The funeral of W. B. MacGinnis, the young man who committed suicide by night, occurred this afternoon at the residence of the father of the deceased. Rev. E. B. Northern conducted the services. The body was interred at Greenlawn Cemetery.

The parlor and other rooms were beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and potted plants. An elegant wedding breakfast was served, and the bride and groom left for North Carolina and the St. Louis Exposition. They will reside in Fulton, Mo.

The marriage closed the delightful house party, which lasted for a week or more at Judge Anderson's.

Judge Gooch and wife, of Richmond, and Dr. Robert H. Jones, of Winston-Salem, N. C., were among those present.

Later an elegant reception was given, at which only the relatives and intimate friends of the family were present.

Dr. and Mrs. Hale left for Atlantic City, where they will spend several weeks before going to the North Atlantic Coast. The bride is the daughter of the late George M. ## DIES FROM OPERATION

Waldeck - Rousseau, Former French Premier, Passes Away Near Paris.

WAS A NATIONAL FIGURE

Inaugurated Anti-Clerical Policy in France—Pardoned Dreyfus After Second Trial.

(By Associated Press.)

PARIS, August 10.—Former Premier Waldeck-Rousseau died at 2:40 o'clock this afternoon at his country residence at Corbeil, eighteen miles from Paris, from the effects of an operation which his medical attendants deemed to be a final necessity.

The operation was performed under chloroform at noon to-day by Professor Kehr, who was assisted by Dr. Armour and three French surgeons. It at first appeared that the operation, which was extremely painful, would prove successful, and the patient was removed from the operating table to his bed, the pulse became more feeble and despite the administrations of injections of serum, M. Waldeck-Rousseau gradually sank and died without regaining consciousness.

The cabinet will meet to-morrow to consider the details of the funeral, which the government desires shall be of a national character, though Madame Waldeck-Rousseau will be consulted on this point.

Pardoned Dreyfus.
Notwithstanding the fact that failing health prevented his active participation in politics for the last few years, the death of M. Waldeck-Rousseau leaves a gap in the ranks of Frenchmen which it will not be easy to fill. Assuming office in 1899, when the war of the reactionary and progressive parties over the Dreyfus case was at its height, M. Waldeck-Rousseau succeeded in gathering around him Republicans of various shades of opinion, thus inaugurating a party of Republican defense, a later development of which is the course pursued by Premier Combes and his cabinet.

The most striking measure of the early days of his ministry was the pardoning of Captain Dreyfus after his second conviction at Rennes, which was followed by the proclamation of an amnesty covering all offenses connected with that notorious case.

M. Waldeck-Rousseau will be best remembered as the inaugurator of the anti-clerical policy, which his successor carried further than he did. Considering his task, accomplished at the end of his life, against unauthorized religious congregations, he resigned office on the plea of failing health. He often opposed the extremist measures brought in by M. Combes.
